observable at Police Headquarters played yesterday by officials was lacking. Supt. Byrnes was at his desk at the usual time, but the Commissioners were If apything late in getting down.

The Superintendent preserves o policy silence regarding the scheme on the of some of the Commissioners to ist him from office, but there is an air confidence in his being which gives impression that the "turning down" the impression that the "turning down" process may result disastrously to the promoters. The latter—the Commission—re—will hold a meeting this afternoon, and they will probably be heard from Doubtless another series of denial will be the result. It may be that being driven nto a corner they may turn and fight.

Mayor Gliroy is watchin—the struggle with interest. He said yesterday, and he relierated this morning, that if any reputable citizen would prefer charges against the Commissioners he would be ready to hear them. Replying to his utterance on that point, Rev. Dr. Parkhurst said last ught:

our complaints have been laid belore the Mayor, and they have elicited to attention. We repeated the complant and made one to him awhile to as Chairman of the Commissioners of Jurors, and he, instead of bringing to before that body as he was bound to do in his official capacity, brought it before the Grand Jury, one of which body was the very party we had complained of. That's the way we are rested and snubbed every time."
The Grand Juror referred to was lugh-flevin, who was charged with amming several liquor stores and vioaling-the Excise law.
"Rev. Dr. Parkhurst is just as accuted to other wade by him and in the "Rev. Dr. Parkhurat is just as accurate in these statements as he has been in all the others made by him and in the policy he is pursuing," Mayor Gilroy said to an "Evening World" reporter this morning.

"In the first place, he never preferred charges to me against the Police Commissioners or any one else. He did send to me a list of disorderly houses, with a letter explaining that it was a copy of a olice Commissioners.

"I sent the matter to the Police Com-lesioners, and in course of time re-sided a report upon it, a copy of which as doubtless forwarded to Rev. Dr.

was doubtless forwarded to Rev. Dr. Parkhurst at the same time.

"As to his accond complaint, he did not saddress me properly when he speaks about my not having brought the matter to the Commissioners of Jurors, as essays was my dity. I am not Chairman of that Hoard, and any complaints of that nature should be made to the Chairman, who happens to be Recorder Emyth.

sman of that Hoard, and any compilating of that nature should be made to the Chairman, who happens to be Recorder Emyth.

"Thirdly, when he speaks of my having brought the matter to the Grand Jury when one of the persons charged was a member of that body. I was their in Chicago representing the city of New York and had no knowledge of the matter. The papers were sent to the Grand Jury by my secretary at the request of the Grand ulry. I think that answers him."

In the warfare that is going on in the Police Department, between the Commissioners on one hand and Supt. Byrnes on the other, a big factor has been over the other a big factor has been over the other a big facto room.

The fact that the men have been able to come together, to exchange views and compare notes, has been the biggest danger to the alleged blackmallers. Very little goes on in the Department at present that the officers of the organization do not know all about. They are fully alive to the present situation, and what the removal of Supt. Hyrnes would mean. The power they exercise may be felt at any moment.

Among the rank and le of the organization it was the xpectation at one time that they would be able, at a not too remote period, to dictate their own terms. The organization is said to have originated largely in the fallure to obtain increased salaries. It will be remembered that a bill for that purpose was defeated in the Legislature on the dictation of the officials here.

"The World' has it right when it mays that not Captains, but politicians, rule the precincts." said an official at Headquarters this morning. "I know of a fair instance which demonstrates the pull of certain saloon-keepers.

"A policeman one Sunday requested a saloon-keeper to draw down his shades, so that it would be less evident that he was doing business in violation of the excise law. The policeman was told to attend to his own affairs. The sergeant was notified, and he made a similar request of the saloon-keeper, but was also met with a rebuff.

The sergeant ordered the saloon-keeper arreated. He got off in court, and a few days afterwards the sergeant was transferred by order of the Commissioners from one end of the city to the other. That is not encouraging to the policeman who would do his duty, is it?"

Among the city officials who visited Police Headquarters this morning were Police Justice Diver and Excise Commissioner Michael C. Murphy. The fact that the men have been able Capt. Cortright. Sergt. McDermott and Detectives Levy and Hunt raided the disorderly house at 159 Allen street and captured Sarah Reisberg, the proprietress, and six inmates.

The evidence against this resort was furnished by a former inmate, who said she was thrown out and her clothing kept from her.

Capt. Cortright and his men next went to Michael Levy's saloon, 194 Allen street. The rear room was crowded with young men who were engaged in playing "craps." Both the front and the rear of the place was guarded by policemen and the thirty-one men in the saloon were caught like rats in a trap.

Some of the men tried to escape when Capt. Cortright announced that they were all prisoners, but found it impossible to do so. The thirty-one men were marched to the station-house and locked up for the night. The bartender of the saloon was arrested and charged with keeping the gambling house.

The police also seized quite a number of packs of cards and dice boxes.

On secret lines the movement was worked until nearly two-thirds of all the patrolmen in the Department had been initiated, then they branched out openly and when the Commissioners heard of it they were filled with aiarm.

The organization was frowned upon Every effort was made to break it up, but the roll of membership kept on increasing, and one year ago they held their first annual reculsion in Sulzer's Harlem River Park.

Finding that they could not bring up the organization, and not thorushly understanding what it really meant, it is charged that the Commissioners and their henchmen and ward heelers tried to turn it into a Tammany adjunct.

During the last election, at one of the meetings a score of resolutions were introduced, indorsing the candidate of a certain Assemblyman. It was, literally speaking, kicked out of the meeting from.

BRUTALLY BEATEN BY A NEGRO.

CHICAGO, Dec. 19.—Edna Millville, a young girl, living at a boarding-house on Wabash avenue, was brutally assaulted by an unknown colored man, who went there to beg for food last night.

After he had eaten his fill, and without the slightest provocation, he rushed at her with an iron bar and beat and kicked in the figuries so severe that the girl may die. The assaulant is still at large.

The other women in the house rushed streaming into the street, but before the police officer who heard their cries reached the spot the assailant had escaped through the back door, and has thus far eluded arrest.
